(the “Company”)

SCHEDULE OF MATTERS RESERVED FOR THE BOARD

Pursuant to article 91 of the Company’s articles of association (the “Articles”), the board of directors of the Company (the “Board”) have the general power to manage the Company’s business. This includes the power for the Board to delegate to committees (under article 104 of the Articles), to individual directors (under article 94 of the Articles) and to any manager or agent of the Company (under article 93 of the Articles).

Notwithstanding this extensive power of delegation, the Board recognises that, in accordance with principles of good governance, there are areas where it should have the sole and exclusive responsibility to take decisions. Accordingly, the matters set out in this schedule below are reserved exclusively for determination by the Board. The fact that a decision is reserved to the Board does not, and should not, prevent relevant committees of the Board, or individuals with relevant knowledge and expertise, from reporting their recommendations to the Board or contributing to the constructive dialogue of such matters. Matters which the Board considers suitable for delegation to its committees are contained in the terms of reference of such committees.

In particular, matters marked with an asterisk may be subject to recommendations from the audit, nomination or remuneration committees (as applicable). However, the final decision to be taken on such matters remains with the Board.
